

UNICO National Supports Major New Book on Italian American History

(March 07, 2016)

At a recent Big East basketball game between Seton Hall and Providence at the Prudential Center in Newark, NJ, officials and representatives of UNICO National presented a check for $50,000 to Professors William J. Connell and Stanislao Pugliese, editors of The Routledge History of Italian Americans.

With chapters written by three dozen nationally and internationally renowned scholars, this monumental new history of Italian Americans is scheduled for publication next year.

The editors have decided to arrange and organize the essays into the following categories: "Explorations and Foundations," "Mass Immigration and Creating Little Italies," "Becoming American/Contesting America," "Postwar to Post-Ethnic?" The volume will include a visual essay

"Italian Americans in Action," that will present over 100 years of Italian American culture in historical photos. The book promises to be the standard history and reference book for scholars, students and the general public for the next generation.
